STORNOBEDINGUNGEN: The Austrian Hotel Regulations apply to groups if more than 20 persons:

(1b) The accommodation contract can be terminated without payment of a cancellation fee by both contracting parties through unilateral notification until but not later than three months prior to the agreed day of arrival of the guest.

The cancellation notification must be available to the relevant contracting party no later than three months prior to the agreed day of arrival of the guest.

(2) The accommodation contract can be terminated, with the payment of a cancellation fee amounting to 40% of the total arrangement price, by both contracting parties through unilateral notification until but not later than two months prior to the agreed day of arrival of the guest.

The cancellation notification must be available to the relevant contracting party no later than one month prior to the agreed day of arrival of the guest. In case of a cancellation notification of up to 1 week prior to the day of arrival, 70% of the total arrangement price shall be charged as cancellation fee. In case of a cancellation notification in the last week prior to the booked day of arrival, 90% of the total arrangement price shall be charged as cancellation fee.

(3) Unless a later time of arrival has been agreed, the accommodation provider has the right to withdraw from the contract if the guest does not show up by 6pm on the agreed day of arrival.(4) If the guest has paid a deposit, the room(s) shall remain reserved until and no later than 12pm of the following day.(5) The guest shall pay the accommodation provider the agreed amount even if the guest does not use the ordered rooms or board service. Meaning that the entire arrangement price will be charged in case of no-show or early departure.

(6) It is the accommodation provider's responsibility to make reasonable efforts to rent out the unused rooms otherwise (Section 1107 ABGB).
